

You are misguided with your proposed sanctions against radio hosts such as Howard Stern. This country was founded on the predication of free speech. People do not have to listen but they should have the option. Sincerely, Dr. Willis Gabel